

Deputy Mayor

Cllr Sabrina Francis Deputy Mayor 2019-2021

Sabrina Francis is a Labour councillor for Bloomsbury, currently serving her second term. She has lived in Camden with her mum and her sister for her whole life and attended Brecknock primary school and Camden School for Girls.

First elected in 2014, Sabrina is Camden Labour's first black woman councillor, and is a former chair of the Housing Scrutiny Committee and of a licensing panel. She also has a particular interest in employment and welfare policy.

Before joining the council, Sabrina studied at Birmingham University and started her career as an education worker for a charity that aims to get disadvantaged children into higher education. She has also held digital roles in an agency and on a political campaign, and currently specialises in media and government affairs alongside being a councillor. In 2017 she was recognised on the New Year's Honours List for services to the University of London.

Her Deputy Mayoress for the year is Jacinta Francis and her escorts are Chanel Francis, Cllr Adam Harrison, Cllr Rishi Madlani, Sophie Cubbin, Karly Fulton, Anh Hoang, Sabrina Jantuah and Christina Panayiotou.
