

London Borough of Camden

Early Help Services

Privacy Notice

1. Introduction

Camden's Early Help services, including Integrated Early Years, Family Support and Complex Families and Integrated Youth Support Services (IYSS), aim to support all children to have the best start in life. Their services include developmental reviews by Health Visitors, drop-in stay and play sessions, family support casework, practical and emotional support to families, and specialist support like parenting programmes and speech and language support.

IYSS consists of Youth Early Help, Youth Service, Connexion and Career, FWD Young Person's Substance Misuse, Engage Youth Diversion Project, Youth Justice and Youth Violence and Exploitation Services

Early Help services will hold a wide range of information about you and your family. We use this so that we can provide advice, guidance, assessments, services, support, programmes and safeguarding for children and their families in Camden and meet their needs.

- Prevent crime and fraud, and assist other public bodies to do their work safely and effectively
- Help you to be a part of your child's life in nursery and share in their development

5. Agencies we may share your data with

a. Explanation:

To allow the council to carry out its duties properly it may need to share some, or all information listed in section 3 with some, or all the other parties listed below. We only share information when the law (and our policies) allows or require us to. Information is only shared where it is necessary to do so, and information is always shared securely.

Information listed in section 3 may also be requested from other parties, to allow the council to undertake its duties effectively.

The council does not need consent to share data with other organisations because consent is not the legal basis. This is explained in section 12. Where possible we will tell you what data is being shared and why, but in some cases, we do not have to do that. An example would be where we are asking for information from the police or where we are sharing safeguarding information with another organisation to alert that the child concerned may be at risk of harm.

We also undertake general data matching or data sharing in certain areas for the prevention or detection of crime. More details on this are available on the Council's general privacy page at www.camden.gov.uk/privacy

The council has a number of data sharing agreements with agencies to cover data sharing, the main ones are available here Data Sharing Agreements \(DSAs\) | Open Data Portal \(camden.gov.uk\)

b. List of parties we may share data with:

- Other council services such as Children's Social Work Service, Housing, Adults' Social Care, Legal Services, Data Protection, and Information Rights
- Commissioned services for example physical health services, emotional health services, homelessness services, carers services, special educational needs services, safeguarding services
- GPs and other health professionals, Local NHS Foundation Trusts for example Mental Health Services and hospitals, Local Clinical Commissioning Groups, Midwives and Health Visitors
- Education (including early years) and Schools
- Police, Probation, Youth Offending Service
- Mental health services, Drug and alcohol services, Domestic abuse services
- Relevant voluntary, community and faith organisations
- Other local authorities such as councils, Fire and Rescue services
- Ofsted.
- Central Government departments for example Ministry for Housing, Communities and Local Government, The Department for Education, Department for Work and Pensions etc
- Where you have a child in a council-maintained nursery and have consented to using the eyLog Parent application, there will be occasions when video clips/pictures of your child will be included in clips and pictures shared with other parents via the app (e.g., when your child and theirs are engaging in an activity).

6. Storing and retaining personal data

Early Help Services holds data securely on our electronic case recording system MOSAIC, Core IYSS, Childview and the National Drug Treatment Monitoring Service (NDTMS) in shared drives and in Office as necessary. The council use technical and organisation measures to keep information safe and secure.

We will keep information until your child is 25 as part of the Council's statutory duty. If you are over 18, we will keep any information you share with us for six years.

If you consent to using the eyLog Parent application, which is used in Council-maintained nurseries, the Service will use the eyManage nursery management system (which is owned by Eyworks Limited) to share photos and/or short videos of your child with you as part of their learning journey. As explained in 5b above, there will be instances where videos including your child interacting with others is shared with other parents. In these cases, the other child will be the focus, but your child may be included in footage (e.g. of children playing cooperatively). Eyworks will own the data and information, but Camden will manage the data in accordance with the provisions outlined in this Privacy Policy.

7. Do I have to provide this information and what will happen if I don't?

If you do not provide us with your information, we will be unable to provide you with the support you require.

8. Transferring data out of the EU/EEA

If you participate within the Parent-Child Psychological Support programme (PCPS), the Integrated Early Years Service will share information for supervision, consultation, and evaluation purposes, with the Instituto Psicologico De Infancia Y Familia (IPINFA) based at the University of Valencia. To ensure informed consent to participate within the PCPS programme you will be asked to complete an Information Sharing and Video Recording consent form.

Otherwise, Early Help Services will not transfer data out of the EU/EEA unless a child goes to live in a country outside the EU/EEA. In these circumstances, we will liaise with the appropriate authority in that country to facilitate the lawful and secure transfer of data

9. Automated decision making

We do not use automated decision-making or profiling to process your personal data.

10. Your data subject rights and requesting access to personal data

Under data protection legislation, parents, carers, and children have the right to request a copy of information we hold about them. Parental access to a child's data is not automatic and may be restricted where appropriate. Where the child is aged 13 and over, they must consent to a parent having access.

There are other data subject rights which can be seen on our website Your rights - Camden Council. Please see the ICO website <https://ico.org.uk/> for more information.

To make a request for your personal information or to exercise other data protection rights please use our web form Your rights - Camden Council

11. The right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority

You can complain to the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) if you are unhappy with how we have handled your personal data. It would be helpful if you contacted us first at dpa@camden.gov.uk to see if we can resolve the problem. You can contact the ICO without charge, Telephone: 0303 123 1113, live chat <https://ico.org.uk/global/contact-us/live-chat/> or webform <https://ico.org.uk/global/contact-us/>
