

Employability Support

If you would like help looking for employment or work related training, come along to Peabody's Hugh Cubitt Centre in King's Cross and meet one of our qualified professionals.

We offer free one-to-one support in your search for a job or preparation for work.

Our service includes:

- Careers advice
- Access to work based training
- Job search advice
- Help with creating bespoke CVs and covering letters
- Help with completing application forms and personal statements
- Interview preparation
- Introduction to employers
- In work support

The service is free and available to adults aged 16+, who are unemployed or working less than 16 hours per week and are able to prove a right to work in the UK.

To book an appointment or call Jasmine or Julie on 0203 828 3867/3879 or email your contact details to Employment.Training@peabody.org.uk
