Details of how to submit your application are given in part 10 of the guidelines.

You will need to submit supporting documentation with your application. As stated in Part H. It is important that these are submitted with your application form. Refer to part 9 of the guidelines.

Once we have received your completed application, supporting documentation and payment we will begin to process your application. Please note that failure to provide any of the supporting documents will lead to delays in the processing of your application.

For some applications we may also need to liaise with London Buses, Transport for London and/or a neighbouring borough(s). This may affect the time taken to process your application. Refer to parts 1 and 4 of the guidelines.

Part H: Supporting documents/references

1. Parts A to F must be completed by the applicant for authorisation to place and retain apparatus in the Highway, this includes alteration or repair of a connection to a property which is the subject of redevelopment and this must be submitted to the London Borough of Camden with:
 - a. 2 copies of A4 1:1250 scale plan of the proposed location of the relevant apparatus marked by a red broken line.
 - b. Proof of Public Liability Insurance. This must provide a minimum £10m cover and be maintained by commencement of the works on the Highway, up to the completion and acceptance by the London Borough of Camden of the permanent reinstatement.
 - c. Completed Declaration Form (Statutory Undertakers Declaration/Requirements), or evidence that they have been contacted and have no objections.
 - d. Evidence that owners of the land through which service runs have no objections.
 - e. Copies of New Road and Street Works Act accreditation for supervisors and operatives who will work on site.
 - f. Payment of relevant fees and deposits – see part 1 of the Application Guidelines

2. Traffic Management Plans

You will need to submit a traffic management plan with your application. Your plan will need to include:

- a. How you intend to maintain traffic flow, both vehicular and pedestrian. eg 'temporary traffic signals' or 'stop/go' boards
- b. The extent of changes to any restrictions in place, e.g. parking

Part J: Agreement and Indemnity

- 1 The person or organisation granted a Street Works Licence (hereinafter referred to as “ the Licence”) becomes an Undertaker for the purposes of the New Roads and Street Works Act 1991, and is subject to the relevant duties and responsibilities imposed by the Act and associated Secondary Legislation and Codes of Practice.
- 2 Financial charges will be imposed by the London Borough of Camden on the Licence holder for non-compliance with the relevant statutory duties or Licence conditions. Applicants should note that this liability cannot be delegated to any other person or organisation.
- 3 The London Borough of Camden, who are the Street Authority for the Highway (hereinafter called ” the Highway”) hereby grants to the party named in Part A (hereinafter called “the Licensee”) with the intent that the same shall benefit and run with the property described Part C a Licence under Section 50 of the New Roads and Street Works Act 1991 to place and leave in the Highway in the position shown by a red broken line on the plan attached hereto the apparatus (hereinafter referred to as ”the Apparatus”) short particulars of which are set out in Part B and to maintain repair and reinstate the Apparatus and break open and have access to the Highway for those purposes upon the terms and subject to the conditions hereinafter specified and subject also to the relevant conditions and provisions contained in Schedule 3 of the said Act and the Licensee hereby accepts the Licence upon and subject to the said terms conditions and provisions.
- 4 The Licence is granted to the Licensee and his Successors in Title. Where he proposes to part with his interest in the Apparatus he shall before doing so, give 6 week’s written notice to the London Borough of Camden stating to whom the benefit of the Licence is to be transferred.
- 5 The Licensee shall :
 - a) Conduct all the relevant works in accordance with the requirements of the New Roads and Street Works Act 1991, and its associated Secondary Legislation and Codes of practice.
 - b) Pay particular regard to compliance with the Code of Practice for “Safety at Street Works and Road Works”
 - c) Indemnify the London Borough of Camden against all liabilities costs expenses damage and losses suffered or incurred by them arising out of or in connection with:
 - i) The placing or presence in the street of apparatus to which the Licence relates, or
 - ii) The execution by any person of any works authorised by the Licensee
 - iii) The execution of any works described in Part B
6. The Licensee shall pay to the London Borough of Camden in connection with the granting of the Licence all such fees as described in Part 1 of the Application Guidelines. In addition:
 - a) Works in excess of 200 metres length will be subject to additional inspection fees.
 - b) The cost of any investigation or remedial works carried out by the London Borough of Camden, or defect inspections with respect to the excavation and reinstatement of the Highway will be deducted from the deposit or invoiced for.
7. The Licence shall remain in force until withdrawn by the London Borough of Camden (under Schedule 3 of the New Roads and Street Works Act 1991) or surrendered to the London Borough of Camden by the Licensee.
8. The London Borough of Camden may terminate/ this Licence at any time by service on the Licensee of a written Notice :
 - a) On the expiration of such period specified in the Notice, (not less than 7 working days, beginning with the date of service of the Notice), if any condition of this Licence is contravened by the Licensee, or if the London Borough of Camden becomes aware that the Licensee intends to cease using or abandon the Apparatus, or

- b) The Licensee has or intends to part with the Apparatus, in circumstances which are prohibited under the Licence, or
- c) Withdrawal of the Licence is deemed necessary in accordance with the functions of the London Borough of Camden or
- d) The Licensee has made a false declaration by not obtaining any consent or licence required under any other enactment, e.g. Telecommunications Licence.

NB: Under sub paragraph c) a minimum of 3 months' notice will be given by the London Borough of Camden.

- 9. When a Licence has expired or is withdrawn or surrendered, the London Borough of Camden may:
 - a) Remove the Apparatus (the subject of the Licence), or alter it in order to reinstate the street. Expenses incurred may be recovered from the former Licensee.
 - b) Require the former Licensee to reinstate the street (by removal or alteration of Apparatus), at their own expense, within a specified time. Please note that a further Licence is required for such works.
- 10. Any Licence issued under this procedure does not give the applicant the right to make any connections to sewers, drains, pipes, cables, or other apparatus.
- 11. The Licence does not give the Licensee the right to use the land. The Licensee must make his own arrangements with the landowners, in cases where their consent is needed.
- 12. In the event of failure to comply with all requirements in this Licence, the Licensee will not be able to carry out any works until the London Borough of Camden are satisfied that all requirements are met. We confirm that the details given in Parts A to G above are correct.

STATEMENT

I confirm on behalf of the company named in Part A that I have read and understood the agreement and indemnity in paragraph 5 and that they will abide by these and any decision made by the London Borough of Camden with regard to the suitability, or timing, of the proposed works.

0207 974 4444

The Council's Data Protection Officer is Andrew Maughan who is the council's Borough Solicitor. He can be contacted at: dpo@camden.gov.uk

What information do we collect about you and for what purpose?

We may collect personal or company data about you, which covers basic details such as name, address, telephone number, postcode and email address. We will always explain to you why and how this information will be used.

We process personal or company information to enable us to provide a range of services within the Streetworks Team, which are governed by government legislation.

We will process personal or Company data for the following purposes:

For the purpose to which you provided the information. (e.g. processing information for the purpose of processing your application forms), and to monitor the Council's performance in responding to your request

To allow the Council to be able to communicate and provide services appropriate to your needs,

Where necessary for the Council's Law Enforcement functions, e.g. licensing, planning enforcement, trading standards, food safety, etc. where the Council is legally obliged to undertake such processing

Where you have consented to the processing or for the purpose of a contract/application you have entered into with us

Where otherwise permitted under data protection legislation e.g. disclosure to comply with legal obligations.

Departments in Camden that have personal and sensitive information on you will only allow designated officers to access or process this information. If an external agency asks us to provide any information that is sensitive and personal to you we will only disclose it once we have your specific consent to do so or where we are legally required or legally able to do so.

Camden Council may also use your personal or company data, after it has been anonymized, to allow the statistical analysis of data to allow the Council to effectively target and plan the provision of services

The legal basis of processing:

It is necessary for the performance of a contract or application form
It is necessary for the compliance of Government legislation

When do we share your personal data with third parties?

The Council may disclose personal or company data to third parties, but only where:

It is necessary to comply with a legal obligation, or

Where permitted under data protection legislation, e.g. where the disclosure is necessary for the purposes of the prevention and/or detection of crime; or

Where it is necessary to allow a third party working for or on behalf of the Council and/or to provide services to you. The information you provide us may be shared with other Local Authorities, the Department of Work and Pensions (DWP), HMRC and the Home Office. There will be times that the information will be disclosed to our partner organisations that provide services on behalf of Camden. Once your details are no longer required, they will be deleted securely. The Council will take all reasonable steps to make sure personal data we hold is kept safe. Were your information is disclosed to a third party, the Council will seek to ensure they have sufficient systems and procedures in place to keep your data safe and prevent its loss.

If you choose to complete any of our online forms, Camden Council will not use the personal information you give us for marketing purposes without first gaining your consent. We may pass your details on to third party service providers who are contracted to Camden Council in the course of dealing with your request E.g a homecare agency. These third parties are obliged to keep your details secure, will use them only to fulfil the request and will dispose of the information at the appropriate time

No personal information you have given us will be passed on to third parties for commercial purposes

Our policy is that all information will be shared among officers and other agencies where the legal framework allows it, if this will help to improve the service you receive and to develop other services.

How long do we keep your personal data?

We keep your personal or company data for no longer than reasonably necessary and in line with our corporate data retention schedule

Security of your information

In deciding what personal data to collect hold and use, the Council is committed to ensuring that it will:

Recognise that any personal data handled by Camden is held on behalf of that person and that we ensure we respect that responsibility

Adopt and maintain high standards in respect of the handling and use of that personal and company data

Only collect, hold and use personal data where it is necessary and proportionate to do so

Securely delete any personal data when no longer needed

Keep your personal data secure and safe

Not unnecessarily and without good reason, infringe the privacy of those upon behalf we hold data

Consider and address the privacy risks first when planning to use or hold personal information in new ways, such as when introducing new systems

Be open and transparent with individuals about how we use their information and who we give it to

Make it easy for individuals to access and correct their personal information (see Your rights)

Provide training to staff who handle personal information and treat it as a disciplinary matter if they misuse or do not look after personal and company information properly

Have a robust data breach reporting procedure that effectively manages the risks and includes actions to minimise a similar breach occurring again.

Transfer of data abroad

We will not transfer your personal information outside the EU.

Your Rights

Unless subject to an exemption under data protection legislation you have the following rights with respect to your personal data:

The right to request a copy of your personal data, which the Council holds about you

The right to request that the Council correct any personal data if it is found to be inaccurate or out of date

The right to request your personal data is erased where it is no longer necessary for the Council to retain such data

The right to withdraw your consent to the processing at any time, but only if we have relied on your consent to process your data when you supplied it to us

The right, in certain circumstances, to request that the Council provide you with your personal data and where possible, to transmit that data directly to another data controller, (known as the right to data portability). [Note: this only applies where the processing is based on consent or is necessary for the performance of a contract with you and in either case the Council processes the data by automated means]

The right, where there is a dispute in relation to the accuracy or processing of your personal data, to request a restriction is placed on further processing

The right, in certain circumstances, to object to the processing of personal data. [Note: this only applies where processing is based on legitimate interests (or the performance of a task in the public interest/exercise of official authority)]

The right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioners Office. Website: www.ico.org.uk

I consent to the collection, use and disclosure of my personal or company information in accordance with the Privacy Statement above.
