

20 March 2020 Covid-19 notice: Children's Centres and Early Learning Childcare

Are you a critical worker who is in need of childcare for a child or children aged under five?

Many private, voluntary and independent nurseries are remaining open for the children of critical workers – but, if you need a place for your child, please call Camden's Early Years Service:

- Regents Park Children's Centre: 020 7974 8934
- Harmood Children's Centre: 020 7974 8961
- Agar Children's Centre: 020 7974 4789
- Langtry Nursery: 020 7974 5080.

Services available:

- Family workers, benefits advice and other help continues to be available - please call us. If you would like information, help or support, Monday to Friday (9am to 5pm), please phone on the numbers above
- If you need information and support about baby or infant feeding, please call 07808 891260 or email: camden.babyfeedingteam@nhs.net
- You can also contact the duty health visitor on 020 3317 3032.

The following children's centres and nursery buildings will remain open (Monday to Friday) and will provide some childcare and midwifery appointments:

Regents Park Children's Centre
Harmood Children's Centre
Agar Children's Centre
Langtry Nursery.

Please note the following centres are closed until further notice:
1a Children's Centre (some alternative provision at Thomas Coram)
Kilburn Grange Children's Centre (for refurbishment)
Hampden Nursery
Konstam Nursery
Gospel Oak Nursery.

Children's centre drop-ins, courses and activities are temporarily closed until further notice, including: health visitor clinics, bump to baby antenatal courses, baby feeding drop-ins, family learning and stay and play sessions.

- camden.gov.uk/camdensurestart