

For centuries readers have escaped their everyday lives and journeyed into new worlds. Worlds filled with magic and adventure, incredible mythical creatures, and heroes and villains that speak to our greatest dreams and fears. From ancient folk tales and fairy stories to gothic horror and weird fiction - Fantasy is a rich genre filled with magical worlds. All imagined by writers, artists, and creators who have had an enduring, global impact.

At Camden Libraries we want your Drawings & Poetry

Gather your fellow adventurers and step through your library's portal into the realms of fantasy as it has never been chronicled before. Who knows where your journey will lead.. Use the library as your inspiration, collecting words and pictures and building a story. Take a journey into your imagination while exploring the library in a new way. What story will the library tell you ...

Competition open to all ages of Adventurers and Warriors alike..

Choose your theme and get writing, drawing and exploring: 1. Portals: Libraries as a portal to other worlds.
2. Fairytales and Folklore. 3 Heroes and Heroines. 4 Dragons and Quests

You can either hand your poem or drawing in at your local library, or you can email your submission to:
libraries@camden.gov.uk Please ensure that you include your contact details

Closing date for Poetry and Drawing competition Monday 4th March 2024. Winners announced Thursday 22 March 2024 and notified by email or by phone. Please let us now on submission of work how you would like us to contact you.

Prizes – £25.00 Gift tokens and your poem or drawing will be printed on our library bookmarks.

Scan for more info