

Register your child for free school meals and save over £500 a year

Every child in primary school receives free school meals. Eligible children in secondary schools can receive free school meals too – but they must be signed up to the scheme.

In Camden, every child who is eligible and signed up to the free school meals scheme receives extra support with food worth £500 a year, including:

- Free breakfast clubs
- Food vouchers in the holidays

If you receive certain benefits – including Universal Credit – your child is eligible for all of this support.

If your child has dietary needs or allergies, they will be catered for

- If your child has dietary needs or allergies, ask your child's school how to let the catering company know – e.g. you may need to fill out a form.
- If your child requires Halal or Kosher food, please speak to your child's school about this directly.
- If your child is vegetarian or vegan, you don't need to do anything – every catering company provides these options as standard.
