Social care updates

Our social work team has changed a lot recently

- some staff who had been with us for a long time have left

We are happy that we 3 new team members have joined in the last few weeks

While we were waiting for new staff to start, there were some delays in giving people a social worker

Social care updates

Camden also needs to save money in the future

- this is because the government is changing how money is given to councils

We are making plans to make sure services can continue to support residents

We will talk more about this and share updates as plans develop

Health updates

The North Central London (NCL) and North-West London (NWL) Integrated Care Boards have joined together to become the West and North London Integrated Care Board (WNL ICB)

The new WNL ICB

- covers 13 London boroughs
- supports about 4 and a half million people
- manages around £12 billion each year for health and care services

The NHS has asked Integrated Care Boards to spend less money and make savings
