

There are many websites devoted to and offering advice about elective home education. These are a selection of some of them. The websites were correct as of the date the above. Websites do change from time to time and it may be more appropriate to do a search via a search engine.

The inclusion of an organisation or a website is not an endorsement. You should talk with the individual organization or review the website to see if they will be able to provide the service / support you or your child needs.

If you find a website does not work please email ehe@camden.gov.uk

www.bbc.co.uk/schools/gcsebitesize/history

Free GCSE history study site. Modern World History, Schools History Project, British Social and Economic History and revision exercises.

<http://www.heritage-explorer.co.uk/web/he/teachingactivities.aspx>

English Heritage: Teaching activities (Key stage 1 to 5):

<https://www.history.org.uk>

Range of history resources

www.nationalarchives.gov.uk/education

Government sponsored history website.

<http://www.q-files.com/home/>

Q files: illustrated encyclopaedia (Key Stage 2)

<https://schoolhistory.co.uk/>

Range of resources – there is a membership charge to access but you can register for some free documents